

I urge you to postpone the vote on media consolidation. I would to view information and the laws you are voting on concerning this issue. These are important issues which effect all our lives. Wise decisions are never rushed.